Dear Mr. Reilly,

Received your letter of March 11th with the addresses of two Museums for which I wish to thank you very much and beg to enclose short graphs of those two Chinese coins from the Tink (not Ting, as I made an error in my first letter) Dynasty.

Sorry I can't enlighten you on this Dynasty, but will give you some information regarding those objects of art.

They belong to a friend of mine, who is holding a meagerly paid government position in Germany. Now this man was in China in about from 1900 to 1903 and brought those objects there for keepsakes. His 12 year old daughter is in the first stages of consumption but could be saved if he gets money enough to do it with, therefore this sale.
Considering these circumstances

I would appreciate highly to get as good a price as possible. My friend has also his 70 years old mother to support!

Thanking you for an answer, I beg to remain,

Very Truly,
Yours

Ernst Schaubert.
